ON-PREM TRIAL AGREEMENT

Tellaro Security Operations Platform — Self-Hosted Proof of Concept

Version 1.3

H&A Security Solutions, LLC d/b/a Tellaro — 12178 N 1450th Street, Effingham, Illinois 62401

ON-PREM TRIAL AGREEMENT

This On-Prem Trial Agreement (this "Agreement") is between H&A Security Solutions, LLC d/b/a Tellaro, an Illinois limited liability company ("Tellaro"), and the customer identified on the signature page ("Customer"). It governs Customer's no-fee evaluation of the Tellaro Security Operations Platform installed in Customer's own environment (the "Trial Software") for a limited time.

1. TRIAL PERIOD

The trial period begins on the date Tellaro delivers the Trial Software to Customer (the "Trial Start Date") and ends thirty (30) days later, or on such other end date set forth on the signature page (the "Trial End Date"). Tellaro may extend the trial in writing at its discretion. Trial license keys are time-limited and will expire on the Trial End Date.

2. LICENSE AND RESTRICTIONS

Tellaro grants Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, revocable license during the trial period to install and use the Trial Software in Customer's environment solely to evaluate suitability for Customer's internal business purposes. Customer will not use the Trial Software in production or as a primary or sole detection tool, and will not rely on the Trial Software for production security operations.

The restrictions in Section 2.4 of Tellaro's End User License Agreement — On-Prem (available at https://www.tellaro.io/legal, the "EULA") apply to the Trial Software as if set out here, and additionally Customer will not:

- (a) install the Trial Software on, or use it to monitor, more than fifty (50) devices (workstations and servers);
- (b) extend or modify license keys to circumvent the Trial End Date;
- (c) integrate the Trial Software with production systems in a manner that would create dependence after the Trial End Date;
- (d) use the Trial Software for benchmarking, competitive analysis, or to develop a competing product; or
- (e) make the Trial Software accessible to any third party, including affiliates, except for Customer's own personnel involved in the evaluation.

3. NO FEES

There are no fees for the Trial Software. Customer is responsible for the infrastructure used to host the Trial Software and any costs associated with the trial environment.

4. CUSTOMER ENVIRONMENT

Customer is responsible for provisioning the Customer Environment in accordance with the System Requirements (Exhibit S to the EULA). Customer installs, configures, and operates the Trial Software itself, using the installation documentation Tellaro provides. Tellaro does not install, access, or maintain the Trial Software or the Customer Environment during the trial, and the Remote Access Addendum does not apply. Tellaro is not responsible for issues caused by the Customer Environment, including hardware, network, OS, or third-party software. Installation or configuration by Tellaro is available only as a paid engagement under a Statement of Work.

5. CUSTOMER DATA

Data ingested by the Trial Software remains in Customer's environment and is not transmitted to Tellaro. The Trial Software may transmit limited operational telemetry to Tellaro per EULA Section 12.2, excluding Customer Data. Customer is responsible for the accuracy, quality, and legality of data ingested into the Trial Software and for obtaining any required consents.

6. SUPPORT

Tellaro will answer reasonable questions about installation and use by email or through the support portal during Standard Hours but is not obligated to meet any response or availability target. The Service Level Agreement and Maintenance & Support Agreement do not apply to the Trial Software.

7. WARRANTY DISCLAIMER

THE TRIAL SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE," WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, OR ACCURACY OF DETECTIONS. TELLARO DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE TRIAL SOFTWARE WILL DETECT ALL THREATS OR THAT ALL ALERTS ARE ACCURATE.

8. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, TELLARO WILL HAVE NO LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE TRIAL SOFTWARE, INCLUDING FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, OR FOR ANY LOSS OF PROFITS, REVENUE, BUSINESS, OR DATA, REGARDLESS OF THE THEORY OF LIABILITY. IN NO EVENT WILL TELLARO'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT EXCEED ONE HUNDRED U.S. DOLLARS ($100).

9. END OF TRIAL

Within ten (10) business days after the Trial End Date, Customer will (unless Customer has executed a paid Order Form for the Software): (a) uninstall the Trial Software from the Customer Environment; (b) destroy all copies of the Trial Software, configuration files, and license keys; and (c) certify uninstallation and destruction in writing if Tellaro requests. The Trial Software's license keys will deactivate automatically on the Trial End Date.

10. CONVERSION TO PAID LICENSE

Customer may convert to a paid license at any time by executing the EULA and an Order Form. On conversion, Tellaro will issue a paid license key and the rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the EULA. Configuration data and detection content created during the trial may, at Customer's option, be carried forward to the production deployment, subject to applicable license terms.

11. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each party will protect the other's non-public information disclosed during the trial using reasonable care and will not disclose it to third parties or use it other than to evaluate the Trial Software. The Trial Software, its architecture, detection content, and pricing information are Tellaro Confidential Information.

12. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Illinois, without regard to conflict-of-laws principles. Exclusive venue is the state and federal courts located in Effingham County, Illinois. To the extent permitted by law, each party waives its right to a jury trial.

13. GENERAL

Customer grants Tellaro the right to use any feedback about the trial without obligation. Customer will comply with U.S. export control and sanctions laws in connection with the trial. Neither party may assign this Agreement without the other's consent, except in connection with a merger or sale of substantially all assets. This Agreement is the parties' entire agreement on its subject matter and supersedes any conflicting terms in Customer purchase orders or click-through terms.
