TRIAL AGREEMENT

Tellaro Security Operations Platform — Proof of Concept

Version 1.3

H&A Security Solutions, LLC d/b/a Tellaro — 12178 N 1450th Street, Effingham, Illinois 62401

TRIAL AGREEMENT

This Trial Agreement (this "Agreement") is between H&A Security Solutions, LLC d/b/a Tellaro, an Illinois limited liability company ("Tellaro"), and the customer identified on the signature page ("Customer"). It governs Customer's no-fee evaluation of the Tellaro Security Operations Platform and any agreed Add-Ons (the "Trial Service") for a limited time.

1. TRIAL PERIOD

The trial period begins on the date Tellaro provisions the Trial Service to Customer (the "Trial Start Date") and ends thirty (30) days later, or on such other end date set forth on the signature page (the "Trial End Date"). Tellaro may extend the trial in writing at its discretion.

2. LICENSE AND RESTRICTIONS

Tellaro grants Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to access and use the Trial Service solely to evaluate suitability for Customer's internal business purposes. Customer will not use the Trial Service to detect threats in a production environment as Customer's primary or sole detection tool, and will not rely on the Trial Service for production security operations. Any monitoring or analyst review Tellaro performs during the trial is for demonstration only and is not a managed security service.

Customer will not, and will not permit any third party to:

- (a) reverse engineer, decompile, or attempt to derive the source code, models, or detection content of the Trial Service;
- (b) use the Trial Service for benchmarking, competitive analysis, or to develop a competing product;
- (c) share access credentials beyond Customer's personnel involved in the evaluation; or
- (d) use the Trial Service in violation of the Tellaro Acceptable Use Policy.

3. NO FEES

There are no fees for the Trial Service. Tellaro reserves the right to discontinue the Trial Service at any time and to offer the Trial Service subject to further limitations on data volume or features.

3.1 Trial Limits.

The Trial Service covers up to fifty (50) devices (workstations and servers) and retains trial data for seven (7) days. It is provided on a shared Tellaro trial environment, with Customer's data logically separated from that of other trial customers, and not on a dedicated or self-hosted deployment. A self-installed trial on Customer's own infrastructure is available under the On-Prem Trial Agreement.

Customer will not submit Protected Health Information, student education records, payment card data, or personal data of individuals located in the European Economic Area, United Kingdom, or Switzerland to the Trial Service. No Data Processing Addendum or Business Associate Agreement applies to the Trial Service.

4. CUSTOMER DATA

Customer is responsible for the accuracy, quality, and legality of any data submitted to the Trial Service and for obtaining all consents and authorizations required to do so. As between the parties, Customer retains all right, title, and interest in and to such data.

Tellaro will store data submitted during the trial within the United States and will apply the same security safeguards used in the production Service. Within thirty (30) days after the Trial End Date, Tellaro will delete data submitted by Customer during the trial unless Customer converts to a paid subscription, in which case the data may be migrated to Customer's production tenant subject to Customer's direction.

5. NO SLA; NO SUPPORT COMMITMENTS

The Service Level Agreement does not apply to the Trial Service. Tellaro will provide reasonable trial-level technical assistance during business hours but is not obligated to meet any response or availability target.

6. WARRANTY DISCLAIMER

THE TRIAL SERVICE IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE," WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, OR ACCURACY OF DETECTIONS. TELLARO DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE TRIAL SERVICE WILL DETECT ALL THREATS OR THAT ALL ALERTS ARE ACCURATE.

7. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, TELLARO WILL HAVE NO LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE TRIAL SERVICE, INCLUDING FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, OR FOR ANY LOSS OF PROFITS, REVENUE, BUSINESS, OR DATA, REGARDLESS OF THE THEORY OF LIABILITY. IN NO EVENT WILL TELLARO'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT EXCEED ONE HUNDRED U.S. DOLLARS ($100).

8. CONVERSION TO PAID SUBSCRIPTION

Customer may convert to a paid subscription at any time by executing a Master Subscription Agreement and Order Form or, for a self-hosted deployment, an End User License Agreement — On-Prem and Order Form. Conversion before the Trial End Date supersedes this Agreement upon the effective date of the Order Form.

9. END OF TRIAL

If Customer does not convert to a paid subscription by the Trial End Date, Tellaro will deactivate Customer's access to the Trial Service. Customer's remaining obligations under Sections 4 (with respect to data already submitted), 6, 7, 10, and 11 survive termination.

Customer will remove any Tellaro agents and sensors from its systems within ten (10) business days after the Trial End Date, unless Customer has converted to a paid subscription.

10. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each party will protect the other's non-public information disclosed during the trial using reasonable care and will not disclose it to third parties or use it other than to evaluate the Trial Service. Information about the Service's architecture, detection content, and pricing is Tellaro Confidential Information.

11. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Illinois, without regard to conflict-of-laws principles. Exclusive venue is the state and federal courts located in Effingham County, Illinois. To the extent permitted by law, each party waives its right to a jury trial.

12. GENERAL

Customer grants Tellaro the right to use any feedback about the trial without obligation. Customer will comply with U.S. export control and sanctions laws in connection with the trial. Neither party may assign this Agreement without the other's consent, except in connection with a merger or sale of substantially all assets. This Agreement is the parties' entire agreement on its subject matter and supersedes any conflicting terms in Customer purchase orders or click-through terms.
